Pastor Kent

"Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?" And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.""

(Acts 2:37-38 ESV)

The season of Lent, in the church, begins on Ash Wednesday. However, for some, it is preceded by another celebration. It's preceded by Fat Tuesday.

Fat Tuesday is also known as Mardis Gras Day, or Shrove Day. The idea is that, on Fat Tuesday, you can eat as much as you want of anything that you want before you begin your Lenten fast.

The biggest celebration of Fat Tuesday is in New Orleans on Bourbon Street. And it's a day of more than just eating whatever you want. It's a big drunken party where sin and decadence are enjoyed and celebrated.

I find this interesting. In short, the mentality is that we can enjoy our sin today before we give it up tomorrow. We can enjoy our sin now because God will forgive us tomorrow.

Most of us don't go to this extreme. However, a similar attitude is often found in our heart. We often give in to sin, knowingly and willingly. And we excuse our behavior with the fact that God will forgive us.

While it's true that God will forgive us of our sin, this attitude, this mindset, completely contradicts the gospel. When we come to faith in Christ, we are called to repentance. We are called to turn from our sin and to seek God's mercy.

We see this in the above passage. After hearing Peter proclaim the Word to them, the people asked what they should do. He, then, told them to repent and be baptized for the forgiveness of sin.

We are called to repent, we are called to turn from our sin, because God is saving us from sin. And, if he's saving us from sin, we cannot remain in it. We cannot continue to be willfully enslaved to sin and, at the same time, be saved from it.

I'm not suggesting that we can live a life free of sin. However, from our repentance flows a hatred of our sin. From our repentance flows a desire to turn from our sin and to live for the Lord.

A repentant spirit is not something that we can turn off for a moment of "fun." We must not gladly sin, reassuring ourselves that we'll repent tomorrow. Repentance is a crucial aspect of our faith and salvation.

Lent Series

During our Wednesday night Lenten services, we'll hear a series of messages titled: The Passion. Please plan to join us as we remember Jesus, and what he's done for us.

The Mission of the WMF of Prince of Peace is to study and share the Good News of Jesus, through word and deed, at home, in our community and throughout the world.

Here we are into March already. I still haven't made any New Year Resolutions. I want to be spending more time in God's word than I did last year. Maybe that's a good thing to resolve to do. I missed that in 2018.

A polite reminder - those who use the kitchen are responsible for washing the dishcloths and towels and returning them to the drawers! (this includes fellowship!)

Men's Breakfast/Bible Study

Men's breakfast/Bible study will be Saturday, March 16 @ 7:00am!

I've been attending the adult SS class. It is so interesting and convicting. Makes me think about my relationship with the Lord. Going through 1st Timothy verse by verse in the Wednesday night Bible study is really eye-opening for me. Our WMF Bible Study, God's Servants Teach Us Life Lessons, is looking at old familiar stories of some of God's most faithful servants, and God's perfect example of faithfulness. When I go over these lessons, I am amazed at how this faithfulness is displayed in these individuals' day to day lives. We looked at the story of Ruth again. Ruth and her mother-in-law Naomi suffered losses and hardships, but Ruth's dedication to Naomi and Naomi's God in these hard times is inspiring. Naomi was bitter, but that didn't discourage Ruth. She just did everything she needed to do to care for her. In spite of the losses and struggles just to eat, Ruth maintained a gentle, caring, kind, and obedient spirit. She was redeemed and rewarded.

Our WMF Bible Study in March will be lesson 3, The Woman at the Well///Jesus Satisfies Completely and Forever. We will meet on Monday March 18 at 10:30 am and 6:30 pm. Come join us. We have extra books.

Very excited to announce our Spring Missionary fundraiser: LACEY'S MISSION MARKET which will be held on MAY 11!!! We will be having a "flea type" market with items for sale. We want things that can be touched up or up-cycled. We are asking for volunteers to get these items ready to sell. We are also taking donations such as books, purses, jewelry, scarves, toys and newly crocheted or knitted items. (no clothing, TVs, sofas, and such) We will have a Café and Bake shop. Work days have been scheduled: Tuesdays 1pm-4 in March on the 5,12,19, 23. Saturdays 9am-4 in March on the 9, 23; Tuesdays 1pm-4 in April on the 2, 9,16, 23,30. Saturday 9am-4 in April on the 13. For more info please contact Gina at 701-891-9006 or Judy at 701-870-2131.

The upcoming WMF Spring Rally will be April 27, in New Leipzig.

Avoiding Sticky Situations

Matthew 26:41 tells us, “Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.” If this is the case, why do we as Christians put ourselves in situations where we may compromise our spirit? Why do we go out of our way to test ourselves to see how close we can get to sinning without actually crossing the threshold?

If you are a middle school girl and you spend time with people that only gossip and break down other people to build themselves up, you tell yourself, “It’s ok, I don’t take part in all that is said, I just listen. And if I make a good enough impression maybe I can change the hearts of the people in that group from the inside.”

Or maybe you are a male sophomore in college looking at things you know you shouldn’t be on your laptop after everyone else is asleep. You might tell yourself, “It’s ok, this is healthy. Everyone around me is doing this and they all seem to be doing just fine, no one else is affected by this.”

Or a 37 year old mom meeting other wives for coffee and talking about their husbands in ways that if, their husbands heard them, their pride would be chopped down for years to come because no matter what, a good husband’s pride comes straight from his better half. And you think, “Well, maybe I shouldn’t say these things about my husband, but he’s not here and everyone else has dirt on their husband so I add something so I don’t come off as too ‘goody-goody’.”

And lastly, maybe you’re a happily married husband with two children but no matter what, you can’t stop wishing you were single again. It’s not often, but when you go on facebook and see that your college buddies are out having fun and tearing up the town, you’d be lying if you said you didn’t wish that was you. But this is the road you chose, and you tell yourself, “I’m happy, and I’ll never leave my family, so I’ll just fantasize about what I could be doing with those that don’t have the ‘baggage’ that I do.”

We all have temptations in this world that the enemy would love us to fall into and worse, justify to ourselves and God. So how do we avoid these situations that cause us to fall spiritually and grow further away from where God wants us? The answer is simple, yet seemingly impossible. This solution is, “preparation”. 1 Peter 1:13 says, “Therefore, preparing your minds for action, and being sober-minded, set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.” The only way to avoid the sinful things that we struggle with in this world is to prepare for them beforehand. This is what we mean when we say that serving God is a battle. You prepare for battle in the same way, thoughtfully. Before the middle school girl goes to recess, she must think, “Maybe I shouldn’t surround myself with those that bring others down.” The young man in college must think, “Perhaps these actions not only are hurting my relationship with God now, but they also will devastate all of my future relationships if not stopped.” The mom and wife must realize, “I am my husband’s cornerstone on this Earth and my first devotion is to God and directly after that it is to the one that I vowed for better or worse until I see my Father in Heaven.” Lastly the Father and husband must come to the conclusion that he is blessed, and this is the life not only the he has chosen, but this is the life that God has gifted him is God’s unending Grace. How could he want for anything else with all that he has been blessed.

If we decide to avoid these situations while they are happening, we will always find that we are not strong enough to say no. We must learn to say ‘no’ before the situation even happens. All of these characters must find ways to prepare, defend against, or avoid situations that would hurt themselves, the ones they love, or their Father in Heaven, just as we must with our temptations.

COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS

President's Report – Del Schnaidt

Del went to a church in St. Cloud this weekend and they had a really good message about when you're new in the faith, it's exciting and it's all about you. But there comes a time when we need to let that go and start serving others.

Pastor's Report – Pastor Kent

Participated in ministerial prayer meetings as available, as well as our ministerial business meeting.

Conducted a worship service at KRCC, and another at Senior Suites in Hazen.

Our confirmation students have all now passed the quiz covering the first and second articles of the Apostles' Creed. We will be finishing our discussion of the third article of the Creed tomorrow, and will be taking our second quiz next week. We will then begin discussing the sacraments.

For Sunday School, we finally got into our next book, which is looking at the life and ministry of Jesus. We've worked through two lessons in that study, discussing Jesus' purpose in coming and his power over nature.

I've continued to attend meetings with hospice every other week to discuss the care and the care plans of the patients. I've also made a couple of visits for the purpose of doing a spiritual assessment of new patients.

Visiting and keeping up with members, especially those who are ill and shut-in.
