Pastor Kent

"For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord."

(Luke 2:11 ESV)

Christmas, in the United States, tends to be quite elaborate. There is a way that we celebrate the day. Although we put our own little twists on it, depending on our family, most of it is largely the same.

In contrast, the very first Christmas was quite ordinary, by all regards. The shepherds were out doing their job, taking care of their sheep. But, suddenly, they received good news. A host of angels appeared proclaiming to them that the Christ had been born.

After I was ordained, I immediately moved out to San Diego as I began serving my first congregation. And that first Christmas, the Christmas of 1998, was strange. Everything that was familiar about the holiday was suddenly gone.

The most notable difference was that, for the first time in my life, I would not be spending Christmas with my family. I now lived hundreds of miles away from them. And, even though that distance can be covered very quickly by plane, my position required that I be there for Christmas services. I was also single, at the time, meaning I had no family whatsoever with whom to share the holiday. It was also the first Christmas I'd ever felt lonely.

There were other differences as well. Being alone, I did very little decorating. It was the first Christmas I'd spent without many of the traditional embellishments. I only put up a small tree in my home.

It was odd seeing Christmas lights in palm trees, rather than pine trees, as I drove through the city. It was the first Christmas I'd spent in the warmth, with no winter weather at all. In fact, I spent part of Christmas Eve at the home of the senior pastor, with whom I served, sitting by his pool. It was too cool to swim, but it was lovely on the patio.

Yet, in spite of the differences, and in spite of the simplicity, it was still Christmas. The message of the season and the hope brought by it were the same. I found that, even though our traditions are nice, they are not what define the day.

You could have the trees and the snow, you could have the family gatherings and presents, but without the gospel, without the message of Jesus' birth, it would not be Christmas. The other aspects of the day may be fun, but they are not what make it Christmas. It's Jesus that makes the day what it is.

This is something that we should each consider: Would Christmas be Christmas without a beautiful tree? Would Christmas be Christmas without snow? Would Christmas be Christmas without a big family dinner and time with our loved ones? Would Christmas be Christmas without the weeks of shopping and gift exchanges? Would Christmas be Christmas if all you had was the simple message of the day and the time to glorify God for his salvation?

Prince of Peace
Women's Missionary
Federation (WMF)

The Mission of the WMF of Prince of Peace is to study and share the Good News of Jesus, through word and deed, at home, in our community and throughout the world.

As 2017 draws to a close, I'm looking back at the WMF Bible Study for this past year. Each month ended with asking us to write out a certain Bible verse. As I read over these, I was struck by the verse for September from Acts 1:8 "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you and you will be my witness in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the ends of the earth." Of course one of the reasons that verse caught my eye was due to the teaching of Pastor Jim Rasmussen at our recent Spiritual Life Meetings. I need to constantly be reminded that we are to be His witnesses as our mission statement is: "The Mission of the WMF of Prince of Peace is to study and share the Good News of Jesus, through word and deed, at home, in our community and throughout the world."

We will finish the WMF Bible Study on December 11 (Monday) at 7:30 at our WMF Coffee House. This will be for both the 10:30 and the 6:30 Bible study groups, it's fun to finish up together and of course we will enjoy our specialty drinks as well as Christmas goodies. There will be a short business meeting as we will be electing a Vice President, treasurer and Mission Secretary. These are the positions that need to be filled and we are praying that women will step forward and agree to fulfill one of these rolls. None of them are real time consuming but all of them are important. Please visit with one of the board members if you have questions. The board members are: Judy Tolosky, Margie Lee, Elsie Wiedenmeyer, Darcee Wenning, Lynell Renner and Joan Schumaier.

Preparing and serving the Community Meal went very well. We were blessed with cheerful volunteers and about 95 were served that day.

Doing this made us again realize just how dedicated are the few who do this every month. I would urge people to step up and help out with this project, either in the preparation of the meal or the serving and clean up. The church expects, and will welcome, men, women and youth helping out with the Community Meal.

Please sign up for the 2018 Bible Study "A Study of Hope". Sign up sheet and information is on the table in the back of the sanctuary. This month's article is respectfully submitted by:
Joan Schumaier – WMF Secretary.

If you would like to donate a poinsettia to decorate our alter for Christmas Eve in honor or in memory of a loved one - please deliver Wednesday - Friday Dec 20-22. Thank you!

Sunday School Corner

It is hard to believe it is December! The Sunday School year has flown by. The big Sunday School event for December is of course, the Christmas program. The program will take place Sunday, December 17th during the regular worship service at 9:00 AM. Practice for the Sunday School program will be every Sunday from now until the 17th. If you would like your child to participate, please make sure they are attending Sunday School. Students in grades 3rd-6th grade will have an extra practice on Saturday, December 16th at 10:00 AM. This practice is only for grades 3rd-6th. All other ages of Sunday School students will be practicing during the normal Sunday School time. On Sunday the 17th, we would like all students to be at church by 8:40 to prepare for the program. If you have any question or would like to help with the program please talk to Angie Wanzek.

Operation Christmas Child was once again a great success. The church packed over 94 shoe boxes for children across the world. It is amazing to see our kids think about the needs and wants for others and to put so much thought and care into them. Christian Ed is so excited and is already planning for next year.

Please encourage your children to continue to work on their “Read the Word” section of their take home sheets. Sunday School will resume after the holiday on January 7th at its normal time!

Prince of Peace Children's Christmas Program will be held during the worship service on Sunday, December 17@ 9:00am.

Youth Coffee House Fundraiser will be during fellowship on December 17. Stop by for a latte or an Italian soda (free will donation).

Youth

The Actor
By Jordan Langness

For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. [Heb 4:12 NASB]

I was recently going through a Bible study with a friend and we came across this passage. In the study, the question was raised as to why we thought the author used such strong imagery to describe the word of God. As I was preparing for the study and going through this question myself, I noticed something that seemed significant.

In this verse, it is true that the imagery is quite strong. Double edged swords, piercing and cutting...slashing through bone and joints. This must be some serious stuff. These are things that I had observed plenty of times prior while reading through this passage...but what struck me this time is who was the actor in the passage. In other words, to what party are the actions being attributed? Throughout the description, it is God's word that is active: it is sharp, it pierces, it judges.

I know, this probably seems like a “duh” moment for many, but I believe that this is very significant for us today. You see, it is very common, if not in confession then at least in practice, for us to reverse the roles. We believe that it is our job to discern the Scripture...to figure out what it really means on certain issues or as it pertains to certain topics. You don't have to go far today to find a church that seems to dance around something that appears clear in Scripture but yet gets muddled by persuasive arguments built on reason, emotion, or experience.

This reality is one reason why there are so many different teachings in our land today that all claim the title of "Christian". Some of these doctrines are very much at odds with one another. So, as each one of us continues our search for truth and understanding, may we first consider how we view Scripture. Do we understand that God's word is the authority, or do we have the final say of what we should do in certain situations? Do we understand that God's word is active and always accomplishing its purposes or do we think that we have to do the work in our hearts?

God's word is sufficient, it is effective, and God uses it to work miracles of regeneration in our lives every day. Instead of wrestling for control and fighting for what we feel to be right, let us instead trust the Author of Life and the words He has given to us. Also, let us not neglect to be in it. In fact, whenever we get hungry and think about beef being what's for dinner, maybe we can think instead "Scripture...it's for the sinner" which is all of us. Be encouraged and Strengthened in His word and work of forgiveness in your life today.

COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS

President's Report – Delton Schnaidt

This past weekend I was able to take part, along with 8 other men from our congregation, in the Men's Retreat at Epping ND,. The retreat focused on 5 Solas (Latin word for only) that Martin Luther pointed out during the Protestant Reformation 500 years ago. These solas were the five key teachings that defined the biblical pleas of the Reformers against the Roman Catholic Church in 1517.

Pastor's Report – Pastor Kent

I had a lengthy meeting with the AFLC World Missions Committee by Go-to-Meeting.

Participated in our ministerial prayer meetings.

Visiting and keeping up with members, especially those who are ill and shut-in.

Confirmation is going well, with 11 students. We just looked at the Fifth Commandment and will be taking our first quiz next week.

Led the study at our October men's breakfast, looking at the fact that, like Abraham, we are men of sin even as believers in Jesus. It's for this reason that we're in continual need of God's grace.

I led worship services at Senior Suites, and KRCC.

I communed residents at KRCC.

Attended the District Men's Retreat in Epping, ND.

I'm scheduled to attend meetings of the AFLC World Missions Committee in Plymouth from Nov. 30th-Dec. 2nd.

Youth Pastor's Report – Jordan Langness

Middle School: We have completed our unit on Spiritual warfare and it seemed to go well for the depth of the material that was covered. It isn't something that is much talked about other than what is seen in horror movies which are not a good source of theology. We are now on a unit that focuses on specific characters that show up in Scripture.

Youth Group: Youth group continues to be strong this year with a very good batch of seniors coming. We have completed our study on Doctrine and have moved into a study through 1, 2, and 3rd John with Tony Evans.

We have been having a lot of fun together and there has been some great conversation as we have gone through the studies. We have extended our meeting time an extra 30 minutes to try to build in relational time along with the study.

Other Ministry: I have continued my coaching through Lead 222 and will be adding Garrett Placke in my trainee group. I was blessed to be able to lead one of the sessions at the District Men's retreat, and will be preaching at the community Thanksgiving service in the next few weeks. This past month also included some youth board meetings and a FLY Beyond planning team meeting.
