"For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses."
(Matthew 6:14-15 ESV)

Immediately prior to the words spoken above, Jesus had taught to his disciples the prayer we know as the Lord's Prayer. In this prayer, he told them to pray: "...forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors." Then, after concluding the prayer, he further explained this petition.

As it's the only petition he went on to explain in greater detail, this tells us how important it is. As believers, as a people who've been forgiven, we are called upon to forgive others. In fact, we are required to do so.

We have to be careful with this statement, that we are required to do so. Forgiving others is not a work by which we merit salvation. However, the fruit of our own forgiveness, the necessary result of the forgiveness granted us by God, is our forgiveness of others.

In fact, if we fail to forgive others, we will not be forgiven. If we don't extend to others the forgiveness that God has given us, we will not be forgiven. So this, you see, is a matter of grave consequence.

This is also an area where many of us tend to struggle. Although we long desperately for the grace and mercy of God, we are not willing to extend that grace to others. We feel that, instead of granting them forgiveness as an act of grace, they have to become deserving of our forgiveness.

We rationalize this behavior by saying we will not allow others to walk all over us. We rationalize this behavior by saying we have too much self-respect to allow others to treat us poorly. We tell ourselves that, when people wrong us repeatedly, forgiveness is no longer required.

This reveals that we don't truly understand the gospel. It reveals to us that we don't truly understand the magnitude of our sin. Understanding the gospel, and believing the gospel, will naturally cause us to extend forgiveness as an act of grace.

The gospel tells us that, because of our sin, we are completely undeserving of God's blessings. The gospel tells us that God has granted us forgiveness even though we don't deserve it. The gospel tells us that he's granted us forgiveness even though we can in no way make it up to him. The gospel tells us that, because of Jesus' sacrifice, God looks upon us as if we haven't sinned.

It's this grace that we're called upon to extend to others. As we've been forgiven, we are to forgive. We are called to give grace to those who are undeserving, and to those who have wronged us repeatedly. We are to look upon those who have wronged us as if they haven't done so.

Pastoral Intern Kevin Hall

1 Timothy 2:1-6 (ESV) First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, ²for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. ³This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, ⁴who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁵For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, ⁶who gave himself as a ransom for all, which is the testimony given at the proper time.

I've started working on our men's study for October, which is going to be on original sin, and so I've been doing some reading from various teachers on why God allowed Adam and Eve to transgress

His commandment to them. Ultimately, this problem bumps up against the question of why God allows anything evil in the world to happen or to exist.

Many philosophers throughout history have made the answer to that question easier than it really is by simply saying God made people sinful as an exercise of his sovereign will.

That idea makes God the author of sin and thus boldly contradicts scripture. God's desire and will is for all men and women to be introduced to their Savior and King Jesus Christ, and thereby be saved. When Scripture says that Christ paid the ransom for all, it proclaims that Christ has made satisfaction for all sins and sinners. In the final judgement, the only sins left unforgiven will be the sins that were not, by faith, given to Christ. Everyone who places their faith in the grace of Jesus Christ has their sins imputed to Christ, as is God's desire.

In life, we will often see or encounter evil that we will struggle to forgive, yet Christ would have us pray for the salvation of both the people being tormented by evil, as well as the tormentors. In our own strength, we will never be able to lay down our swords and forgive evil. But Christ has beaten evil already through His atoning sacrifice. So we can pray for our lost leaders and our unbelieving neighbors, even when we 100% disagree with what they stand for. There is grace enough for their repentance and salvation, just as there is for ours. It is God's desire that they be saved, and it is well pleasing to God when it's our desire as well.

Library news...

Fall reading time is here. Snuggle up with a good book while the leaves are falling and the weather is cooler. We have lots of new books on the end cap and so much great stuff on the shelves.

Prince of Peace
Women's Missionary
Federation (WMF)

The Mission of the WMF of Prince of Peace is to study and share the Good News of Jesus, through word and deed, at home, in our community and throughout the world.

I am writing this on the evening of September 21. It is due tomorrow morning. Why do I always put things off like I do? I drive myself crazy. I read yesterday's and today's Our Daily Bread devotions before starting this article. God's word is inspiring all of the time. "I can do all this through Him who gives me strength." Philippians 4:13. Help me Jesus!

Lots of things happening in October. The Steer Missions Conference will be in Bismarck with a ladies luncheon on Friday the 6th at 11:30. Please contact Margie Lee if you want to join us going down there for tickets and/or carpool. Title of conference is "How Will They Hear?" This conference focuses on missions/missionaries and supporting them financially, prayerfully, emotionally and in fellowship.

October 6 we will be visited by Paul and Becky Abel, missionaries in Brazil, and Del and Karen Palmer, the World Missions director. These are missionaries that we support and keep in touch with often. Come hear them speak on Sunday during church and Sunday School. We will be having a potluck meal at noon where we can meet them personally and help celebrate Becky's birthday.

Thinking Globally and Working Locally is the theme of the WMF Fall Rally. This will be on Saturday, October 12 at Beaver Creek Lutheran Church in Ray at 10:30 am. Car pool info to come!

WMF Bible study will be doing Lesson 10, Stephen...How to Die Victoriously, on Monday October 21, at 10:30 and 6:30. It is exciting and it blesses us to look at God's faithful followers. God's servants teach us so much about how to live life. Come join us!

I am including in this report the WMF 2019 Resolutions. These are put together for you to use as a prayer guide as you pray for the work of the WMF and the people involved.

WMF 2019 Resolutions

“One generation will commend Your works to another; they will tell of Your mighty acts.”
Psalm 145:4

I. Encouragement

WHEREAS “Great is the Lord and most worthy of praise; His greatness no one can fathom.” Psalm 145: 3

BE IT RESOLVED that we thank God for Beverly Enderlein and for the work she has done in writing and revising our 2019 Bible Study “God's Servants Teach Us Life Lessons” which provides us examples of God's faithfulness to all generations.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we personally make use of this study and encourage all women (young, old and in between) to attend this Bible study, to acquire God's knowledge, and to pass this knowledge on to the next generations.

...I have been reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also.” II Timothy 1:5

II. Special Thanks and Prayers

WHEREAS God has called and equipped women to serve in leadership:

BE IT RESOLVED that we thank God for the officers of our National WMF and those willing to be nominated for those positions; and pray that each one present today would consider their availability to serve on a local, district, or national board.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we thank Esther Hylden, 1st Vice President, and JoyAnn Dahl, Recording Secretary, for their work and dedication; along with special thanks to Pastor Paul and Laurie Nash and Pastor Del and Karen Palmer for their many years of service, and also thank you to the Eastern District churches for working with our officers to plan and coordinate this year's WMF Day as we pray that God will continually bless them and use them to bring Him glory.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we encourage one another to make use of the 2019-2020 Prayer List included in today's packet, as we ask God for opportunities to share the Gospel with others and make efforts to learn about and participate in the work of these missions.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we give thanks and prayers for our missionaries on the field: Paul and Becky Abel, Jonathan and Tamba Abel, Jonni Sliver, Todd and Barb Schierkolk, Nate and Rhoda Jore, Brent and Emily Raan, Micah and Famke Berger, Matthew and Ednay Abel, John and Hannah Lee, Michael Rokenbrodt, Steve and Glenda Kvale, Ben and Adela Jore, Josh and Ruth Wagner, and Andrew and Alexis Olson and for our Home missions: Abiding Word Free Lutheran, Butte Gathering, Calvary Free Lutheran, Christ Community, Hope Free Lutheran, Immanuel Lutheran, Living Faith Lutheran, Lutheran Church of Hope, New Hope Free Lutheran, The Source, Waikiki Beach Gathering, and their Pastors and Parish Builders.

“We continually remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.”

1 Thessalonians 1:3

III. God’s Will in Proposals and Current Events

A. WHEREAS it says, “But all things should be done decently and in order...” I Corinthians 14:40

BE IT RESOLVED that we encourage the local and district leaders to utilize the following tools to stay connected: WMF Resource Manual, the WMF blog, the Helping Hand newsletter, WMF FaceBook and Instagram, and The Lutheran Ambassador publication which includes a WMF page as we pray for the people responsible for providing the materials.

B. WHEREAS we attempt to carry out the Lord’s work;

BE IT RESOLVED THAT we support the recommended amendment to Article V Officers Section 5 which currently states: “Officers shall be elected for a term of three years. All officers may be eligible for re-election, but no officer shall hold the same office for more than two successive terms. The President and Communications Secretary shall be elected one year: The First Vice-President and Recording Secretary the following year; the Second Vice-President and the Treasurer the third year. Newly elected officers shall officially assume their duties at the first regular WMF National Board meeting following their election.

“The Recommended Amendment will change what is in bold to” Newly elected officers shall officially assume their duties at the All Boards fall meeting following their election.”

“And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another- and all the more as you see the Day approaching. Hebrews 10: 24-25

Youth Shepherds

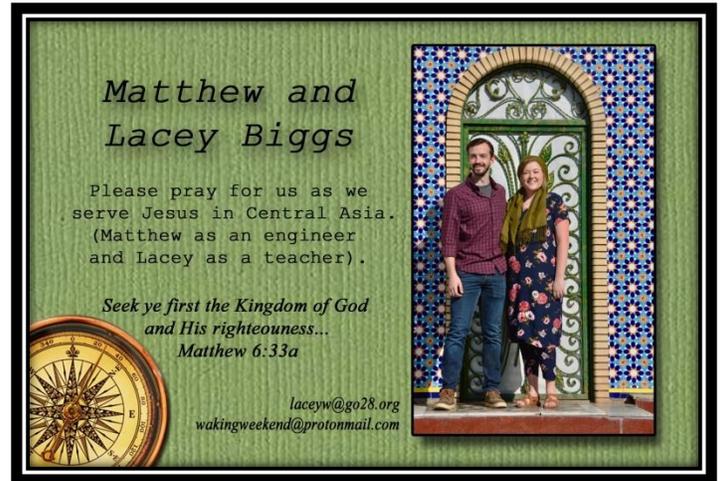

She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue (Proverbs 31:26)

“This wife and mother speaks with wisdom and gives faithful instruction. This fits the biblical idea of a pastor. We think of a ‘pastor’ as an ordained minister in the church, but the words means to shepherd, to lovingly but directly care for people. The bible calls all Christians so mutually shepherd on another. We are to bear the burdens (Gal 6:2), admonish and counsel (Rom 15:14), exhort and correct (Heb 3:13), encourage and strengthen (1Thes 5:11), teach the bible (Col 3:16), confess sins (James 5:16), and forgive and reconcile with one another (Eph 4:32).”

Timothy Keller’s “God’s wisdom for navigating life”

Often we look at the church like the pastor is the only one who should be doing the shepherding, but that was never the intention of the church. We are all meant to shepherd our flock using the word of God just as Timothy Keller said above, we are to bear each other’s burdens, to admonish and correct, to encourage and to teach, and to confess and forgive together as a Church!

“How Will They Hear?” Steer Missions Conference will be October 4-5 in Bismarck. The Ladies luncheon will be Friday @ 11:30. Please contact the office or Margie Lee if you want to join us! (tickets/car pool). Flyers for the conference are in the south entryway. FYI this conference focuses on missions/missionaries and supporting them financially, prayerfully, emotionally and in fellowship.

Please keep Matt & Lacey Biggs in your prayers as they continue their work in Central Asia through May 2020.

Sunday School Corner

SS is well underway. The kids are excited about their memory work. We will have a lesson every Sunday in October except for the weekend of teacher’s convention. We will have alternative Sunday School that day. I am not sure what we will be doing but attendance will be taken so if your child is working a DQ reward and has missed more than 2 Sundays this will cancel one of those days. On October 6th, the Sunday School kids will be singing a couple songs during church.

COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS

President's Report – Del Schnaidt

After hearing this past Sunday sermon content of Encouragement and the scripture reading from Hebrews 10, that "we should consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together...., but encouraging one another" I ask myself how am I doing in that call to encourage others? You might ask yourself the same question. Are you an encourager to others? Do you draw them in, push them away, or probably leave them right where they are at with a sense of feeling that their lives just don't matter to anyone? It's kind of like Rambo said in one of his movies when he was explaining the meaning of expendable. He said it's like being invited to a party, but nobody really cares and it doesn't really matter to anyone if you show up or not.

I believe to be an authentic encourager to someone; it takes a conscious effort and a feeling of heartfelt appreciation or recognition. So, go out there! Make someone's day! Invite them to church, befriend them, encourage them to get involved with the church in an 'active' way, that we might pass on to others, what's been passed on to us.

We are the Church... The Cross is our compass... and God's Word lights the path we choose.

Pastor's Report – Pastor Kent

Hosted the meeting of our AFLC Western North Dakota district. Thanks to the ladies for their help with lunch!

I attended a lunch hosted by the Gideon's, as they seek to maintain relationships with area churches.

Communion at KRCC.

Confirmation instruction is running full speed. We've had our orientation meeting with parents, and three classes up to this point. We have only four students this year, one 8th grader and three 9th graders. We are using the new material from the AFLC.

Sunday School has begun, with our second adult study this week. Although the kids have moved to the AFLC curriculum, the adult class will finish out the Answers in Genesis material this year.

I've continued to attend meetings with hospice every other week to discuss the care and the care plans of the patients. I've also made a couple of visits for them.

Visiting and keeping up with members, especially those who are ill and shut-in.

I've been meeting regularly with Kevin Hall as his internship progresses.

I will be attending World Missions meetings and the AFLC pastor's conference between September 15th-19th. I'll leave after Sunday School on the 15th. Kevin will lead confirmation and the Wednesday night study while I'm gone.

Intern Pastor's Report – Kevin Hall

From the 3rd to the 10th I was in Plymouth for the AFLC Schools' Summer Institute of Theology. I attended classes on church planting and revitalization as well as classes led by Pr. Karl Vaters on the value of small churches. This was the third SIT I've attended, and I've always been very impressed with the program. In the future I would encourage anyone from Prince of Peace who has time to consider attending. It's a great way to connect with other Christians and grow in your ability to apply God's Word to your life and to others.

With a lighter preaching load, I tried to make a few more visits, but I also attempted to work ahead a little on Bible studies and sermons. I also assisted Pr. Olson with Liz Fandrich's funeral and ministry to the family.

Admittedly, my sermon writing and Bible Study prep work needs to speed up to allow for more time in the week for visitation, but like all of us, I remain a work in progress.

I also got to bring a carload of young adults up to the Lee's for lake days. It was fun hanging out with them and nice to relax on the lake, so I was thankful for the opportunity.

Deacon's Report – Garrett Saylor

Website – Pastor Kent had sent out emails addressing the website, and the fact that it has no information on our beliefs. It was decided to put the Statement of Core Beliefs on the website and a link to the Constitution.

Paul & Becky Abel visit – The Abel's will be with us for worship and Sunday School on Oct. 6th. Paul will preach during the service and give a mission's presentation during the Sunday School hour. They would prefer to stay in a home, if possible, so Darcee will send out an email requesting a home for them to stay in. We'll need to house them only for Saturday night, and feed them after church on Sunday. They have an evening presentation in Mott that night. Del and Karen Palmer, former World Mission director, is also traveling with, but would prefer to stay in their motor home. It's also Becky's birthday, so we will want to have a cake or some kind of acknowledgment for her.

Spiritual life meetings: Pastor Tim Johnson has accepted our invitation and seems pleased with the general theme. The dates are set for Nov. 3rd-6th.

Darcee had information on a church security seminar that was held in Devils Lake but we didn't have anyone that could attend on short notice. When she inquired further, they said we could host a seminar here if we are able to get 20 people to register. Pastor Kent will see if there is any interest from the other churches in town. We could also ask the other AFLC churches in western ND to see if they are interested.

Pastor has been asked by a member why we have communion only once a month. It was asked if we might consider twice a month (1st and 3rd Sundays) We thought it may be best to discuss at an Annual meeting to get the desires of the membership.

Trustee's Report – Les Buchmann

Darcee's office computer has been ordered. Trustees are looking to develop a rotating call list where one person gets called for something and then they go to the bottom of the list. The trustees are free to divide up their duties however they wish. Furnaces have been working and electric bill has been lower. Will start tackling replacing the lights themselves but we need to have someone licensed to do it. North walkway is on hold until the budget gets a little more money.

Sunday School (teachers, materials, offering):

OLD BUSINESS

Van for Church – Discussion on safety of 15-passenger vans, costs, mechanical problems. It's difficult to find a van with low miles that's under $20,000. Les Buchmann did find a 12-passenger van with 67,000 miles for under $10,000. The closest 15-passenger van to rent is in Fargo. We will put this on the Annual Meeting Agenda since we'll need congregational approval for this large purchase.

Security Camera for East Door – Pastor Kent talked to Jesse and he recommended using same make of camera already installed and emailed info. He suggested a motion activated light when you enter.

Professionally Clean Sanctuary Carpet –

Bid from Service Plus:

Deb Saylor will check on another bid. We will need to budget for it for 2020.

NEW BUSINESS

2020 Committee Budget Proposals, Names for Nominating Committee – Reminder that budget proposal and names for nominating committee need to be ready before the October council meeting.

Annual Meeting Date – Annual meeting will be November 17 and council will be moved to November 7 to get budget numbers out early. We will have a potluck after church on November 17.
